Gladwyne Reopens Road Replotting Issue

133 Residents Object to 60 Foot Wide State Road

Claim Township Ruling Was Unnecessary and Poor Planning

The Gladwyne Civic Association reopened the issue of road replotting in Lower Merion Township this week and announced the results of a public opinion poll among residents on Conshohocken State Rd.

John L. Randall, chairman of the Association's highway committee, said that only three out of 13 adults interviewed favored the 60-foot width to which the township commissioners recently replotted the road.

The poll, which was conducted by the highway committee, was presented to the directors of the Civic Association Tuesday night. Directors said they were "convinced that such a development would be detrimental in terms of commercialization, traffic nuisance and hazard to human life."

They said they felt that the township ordinance replottling the road "both unnecessary and poor township planning."

Directors also added that they intended to take further polls among their citizens to determine sentiment in regard to road replottling.

The township road replottling ordinance was passed May 21, 1947, by a unanimous vote of Lower Merion Commissioners, including Gladwyne's commissioner, E. A. Stuebner.

A statement issued following the Gladwyne directors meeting read, in part:

"Using a standard questionnaire, the Highway Committee of the Gladwyne Civic Association tried to interview every adult living on Conshohocken State Road in the Gladwyne District. A total of 136 persons were called upon and of these, 133 felt that the paved surface of Conshohocken State Road should be limited to its present width and that the plotted right of way should be 60 feet or less. Only three favored a wider paved surface and of these three, two would limit the plotted right of way to 50 feet. Eighty-five persons requested that the Civic Association ask the commissioners to reduce the plotted right of way to less than 60 feet."

Demolition of the property at Old Lancaster Rd. and North Latches Lane, Merion, began this week, writing an end to a two-year court battle.

As a result of Judge Harold G. Knight's decision on July 3, Ephraim J. Frankel will erect a six-story apartment house on the site of Frankel in the case brought by the Township of Lower Merion, the Merion Civic Association, Dr. Albert C. Barnes, Joseph D. Malkin, Viola V. Malkin and the Bala-Cynwyd Neighborhood Club.

MRS. ANNA TOBIN KANE DIES IN NARBERTH

Mrs. Anna Tobin Kane, of 112 Elmwood Ave., Narberth, died on July 19 at her home. Born in Philadelphia, Mrs. Kane came to Narberth 18 years ago from Germantown. She is survived by her husband, Thomas; her son, Thomas, Jr., and two daughters, Anna Marie and Regina.

Funeral services were held at 10 A. M. today, from St. Margaret's Church, Narberth.

Health Picture Much Improved

No Polio, One Diphtheria Case Reported This Week

The health picture in this area looked clear this week, with even the polio flareup in Haverford Township apparently licked.

Health officials in Haverford Township announced a quiet week, with no new infantile paralysis cases, and the five previous victims improving. Still in the hospital was Mrs. Jane Tickner, 516 Virginia Ave., Manoa. But her family reported on Wednesday that Mrs. Tickner's condition is "very much improved." While she is still in an iron lung, at the Bryn Mawr Hospital, she is well on the way to recovery.

Six-year-old Michael Peter Corbett, of 2433 Merwood Lane, Merwood, returned on Tuesday from the hospital, and his condition was described as excellent.

The first three cases, reported here two weeks ago, were dismissed as cured last week. Haverford Township health officials this week checked and found no further evidence of the disease.

In Lower Merion, Health Officer Robert Thomas reported one case of diphtheria, nine-months-old Barbara Morphet, of 34 Derwyn Rd., Cynwyd, has been ill for several weeks. But this week her case was diagnosed as diphtheria. The last case, reported in February, was the first in the Township in more than five years.

Narberth swung into its second week clear of contagious diseases—a condition which health officer George B. Supple reports as "normal" for this time of the year.

Bala Woman May Regain Property

Mrs. Sylvia Richmond Levine, of Bala, said the way open this week for recovery of her property, now known as the Garden Pier, Atlantic City, N. J. But a legal snarl over the question of taxes remains to be settled, a New Jersey court ruled on Monday.

Mrs. Levine was a member of the WAC in 1943, when the beach-front property was taken over by the city on a tax lien. The amount which she, as part owner, must pay in back taxes remains to be fixed by court. At the time of the foreclosure the city set its figure at $150,000, including taxes, penalties and interest. The amount of taxes since that date must be set.

Under the law, the city may compromise on back interest and penalties, but no compromise may be made on the amount of taxes.

The decision declaring that Mrs. Levine should have a chance to redeem her property because she was not properly notified at the time of the foreclosure was made by Vice Chancellor Haneman, of Atlantic County.

Two Police Chiefs Attend Conclave

Haverford and Lower Merion Township police chiefs attended the three-day convention of the Pennsylvania Police Chiefs' Association, which opened Monday, at Wilkes-Barre.

They are Superintendent Samuel W. Gearhart of Lower Merion and Samuel Siegle of Haverford.

Main topic of discussion at the convention was the rising homicide rate in Pennsylvania. In 1945 there were 162 murder and manslaughter cases reported and in 1946 this figure rose to 239.

Other police problems discussed were juvenile delinquency, careless firearm licensing, better equipment for police departments, traffic control and better trained personnel.

Election of officers and appointment of committees were announced on the last day of the convention.

Lions Club Wants B-C Bank

Would Like Branch of Narberth National Established

Petitions for a bank in Bala-Cynwyd will be circulated in the business section of the community this morning.

Members of the Bala-Cynwyd Lions Club are backing the quest, and are hoping to secure the signatures of all community residents and business men within the next few weeks.

They then plan to take the petition to Carl B. Metzger, president of the National Bank of Narberth, with the proposal that he establish a branch bank in the Bala-Cynwyd area.

This morning petitions asking signatures of those in favor of a Bala-Cynwyd bank will be posted in stores of interested merchants. Lion club members are hoping in this fashion to secure a complete list of residents and merchants.

Members of the committee in charge include Chris Kirsch, chairman; Marple Euler, Bill Harsh, Jim Stanton, Al Whiteside and Joseph Dolan.

Judge Sues Boro Man for Damages

Claims Joseph Pizzari Pulled Out From Curb Without Warning

A Philadelphia judge has brought suit against Joseph Pizzari, 237 Woodbine Ave., Narberth, for damages estimated at $323.83 as the result of an automobile accident on February 3, 1947.

The judge is Edward G. Schmidheiser, 3301 Queen Lane, Philadelphia.

Judge Schmidheiser claims he was driving east on Montgomery Ave. when Pizzari pulled out of a parking place on Montgomery Ave. near Price Ave., Narberth, striking his car. The damages, he claims, represent the cost of repairs and the loss of the use of his automobile.

The judge's suit was filed in the prothonotary's office at the Montgomery County Court House in Norristown this week.

Midshipman Edgar N. Smith, son of Col. William D. Smith, USMC (ret.), of 111 St. George's Rd., Ardmore, of the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., is participating in an extended summer training cruise to Europe aboard the aircraft carrier USS Kearsarge.

The cruise, first to be made to Europe by midshipmen since 1937, began June 23 at Rosyth, Scotland, and includes Copenhagen, Denmark; Oslo, Norway; Goteborg, Sweden, and the English ports of London, Portsmouth, Weymouth, Plymouth, Greenwich and Woolwich, as ports of call.

Residents in No Hurry to Pay Increased Taxes, Says Collector

Narberth residents are apparently in no hurry to pay their newly increased taxes.

In fact, some are definitely—and vocally—unhappy about the boost, especially about the $5 per capita tax imposed by the School Board on top of a four-mill rate in the regular school tax.

Ever since the tax bills went out Mrs. Ruth Grace, Borough Secretary, and John R. Hall, Tax Collector, have received a steady stream of calls protesting the new levy.

Wayne Boy Hits 29.9 for 50 Yard Freestyle

Dick Trimble, of Wayne, in a surprise performance at Colonial Village Swimming Club, smashed an old record of 32.1 seconds in the senior boys' 50-yard freestyle race by setting a pace of 29.9 seconds.

Bob Fitzgerald, also of Wayne, came in a close second.

The times were set during the weekly races at the club for all members. High scorer for the day was Dick Johnson, who earned 15 points in the junior boys' diving, 25-yard freestyle and 25-yard breaststroke.

The race for the President's Cup, awarded at the end of each season to the swimmer with the highest number of points, tightened when Fitzgerald gained 13 points, making his total 56. Elaine Rutledge, of Ardmore, leads the race with 58.

Complete results this week are: Junior boys' diving: Johnson, Bill Burns and Dick Graham, of Narberth. Junior girls' diving: Carolyn Althouse, Colonial Village; Elaine Rutledge and Peggy Merrick, of Wayne.

Cigarette Starts $800 Blaze

Fire at the home of Thomas M. Rowan, of 637 Kenilworth Rd., Wynnewood Park, Tuesday evening, caused damage amounting to an estimated $800, according to Haverford Township police.

Police said the fire was probably started when cigarette sparks in the pocket of a coat hanging in a bedroom closet ignited the clothes in the closet.

Flames were confined to the closet, and were extinguished by Oakmont, Brookline and Manoa Fire Companies.

Damages to the closet, walls and ceiling were estimated at $300, and to the contents, $500.

Residents in No Hurry to Pay Increased Taxes, Says Collector

Reasons for the school tax boost, according to the Narberth School Board, were: (1) raises of $300 per year for each of the school district's 28 teachers and other employees; (2) a new gymnasium floor, and (3) new furnaces. The salary raises alone will add $8400 to the board's budget this year.

In addition to the school and per capita taxes, borough residents are also liable for property and occupational taxes based on a borough tax rate of 18.5 mills for each $100 of assessed valuation, an increase of one-half mill over last year.

For property owners, the tax schedule is as follows: School tax, 23 mills plus the per capita tax; County tax, 1.5 mills; Borough tax, 18.5 mills.

The total tax duplicate for the borough is: School—per capita, $10.985; property, $115.848.02.

Borough—property, $93,182.17; occupational, $389.75.

County—property, $7561.15.

6 File for Narberth School Board No Contests for Council Positions

Six candidates filing for four vacancies on the Narberth School Board salvaged the Republican primary campaign this week from being one of the dullest in the history of the Borough.

The candidates for the four vacancies are: Eugene H. Ogden, 61 Wynnedale Rd., Narberth; Ralph Hoyle, 11 Winsor Ave., Narberth; E. Lee Goldsborough, Jr., 9 Narbrook Park; Mrs. Ingeborg T. Robb, 131 Haverford Rd.; Clifford Narrigan, 505 Haverford Rd., and Mrs. Margaret Briner, 316 Merion Ave.

For the three vacancies on the Borough Council three candidates have filed, two of them incumbents. They are Robert Cameron, 405 S. Narberth Ave., and William Davies, 3 Winsor Ave., the incumbents, and Charles Nevins, 401 Woodside Ave. Elmer Hackman has filed papers for the Republican nomination of auditor.

Democrats not only have no contests, but they have failed to enter candidates for school director, councilman or auditor.

Neither are there any contests among either Republicans or Democrats for the nomination of election officials.

In the First District, Republicans have entered Nevins, the councilman candidate, for judge of elections, and Joseph McClay for majority inspector. W. H. Haws is the Democratic candidate for minority inspector.

In the Second District, the Republican candidate for judge of elections is George Puring and for majority inspector, R. Clark Kennedy. The Democratic candidate for minority inspector is Helen Gara.

In the Third District Elizabeth Williams is the Republican candidate for judge of elections and Clayton Rich the candidate for majority inspector. The Democrats have failed to enter a candidate for minority inspector.

Pew, McClure Set For Bitter Fight

Both Factions Have Full Tickets in Field

Monday, final date for filing nomination petitions, brought indications that the Pew-Heyburn Delaware County machine would make a bid in the September 9 primary election for political control of Haverford Township.

Acting through their political emissary, Albert A. Reiter, township commissioner and Autocar Company executive, the Pew-Heyburn combine is placing candidates in the field for every township commissioner vacancy.

The principals in the Pew-Heyburn machine are State Senator Weldon B. Heyburn, Concordville dirt farmer and scrapie manufacturer, and Joseph N. Pew, Jr., Lower Merion Township oil tycoon and Philadelphia political boss, who abortively backed ex-Governor Arthur H. James for president at the 1940 Republican National Convention in Philadelphia.

The regular Republican Organization candidates for the vacant commissioners posts are: Thomas R. Bailey in the First Ward; William Kirschner, in the Third Ward; Joseph B. Brennan, in the Fifth Ward; Charles S. Wallace, in the Seventh Ward, and John H. Doherty, in the Ninth Ward.

Pew-Heyburn-Reiter have endorsed the following commissioner candidates: J. Courtland Hoy, in the First Ward; Carl J. Schultheis, in the Third Ward; Joseph deV. Keefe, in the Fifth Ward; Reiter, in the Seventh Ward, and George T. Lloyd, in the Ninth Ward.

Five candidates have filed for three vacancies on the Haverford School Board. They are Maurice L. Webster, Jr., Violet J. Dunkle Joseph W. Trickett, William H. J. Manthorpe and Granger A. Schradner.

2 BURNED AS GASOLINE EXPLODES IN NARBERTH

Gasoline burst into flames, seriously injuring two painters, at Narberth Tennis Club Saturday.

The men, Anthony D'Agostino, 22, and Harry Winkler, both of Roxborough, were cleaning the lockers when the explosion occurred. D'Agostino was treated at Bryn Mawr Hospital for second and third degree burns. Winkler, his helper, was treated for minor burns. Lower Merion township police, aided by Deputy Fire Marshal Walter Titlow, answered the call.

John Lafore, Jr. Is Unopposed for Controller Post

Bala-Cynwyd Man Files For Democratic Nomination Of Treasurer

Organization and independent factions in both the Republican and Democratic parties will have a test of strength over two Montgomery County offices in the coming primary September 9.

The Republican Organization, headed by Fred C. Peters, Ardmore resident and county commissioner, will seek to capture the district attorney office which is now held by Frederick B. Smilie, who is seeking his third term. The Organization has placed in the running E. Arnold Forrest, Conshohocken attorney, and president of the Montgomery County Bar Association.

The Democratic Organization, headed by Raymond K. Mensch, Gilbertsville gasoline station owner and minority county commissioner, is being challenged by a group of party independents who have placed two candidates in the field for county commissioner.

Mensch, who is a candidate for re-election, and his running mate Owen J. Keenan, of Cheltenham, are being opposed for the two commissioner nominations by Charles J. Hepburn, Jr., Bryn Mawr, and J. Phillip Dowd of Norristown.

No Other Opposition

Otherwise, the candidates for both parties are without opposition. This includes the local candidates, John A. LaFore, Jr., Haverford, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination of controller, and Frederick Bickert, Bala-Cynwyd, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination of county treasurer.

Monday was the last date for filing petitions and candidates now have until next Monday, July 28, to withdraw.

The following is a list of Republican and Democratic candidates who filed for party nominations in Montgomery County:

NURSES VIEWPOINT:

Nurses Indorse New Wage Scales Claim Present Salary Inadequate

By RUTH EDGAR

Bryn Mawr Hospital nurses this week emphatically endorsed the new wage scales proposed by the Pennsylvania State Nurses' Association last month.

They pointed to the inadequacy of their own salaries as evidence of the necessity for pay increases. The Association's proposal, made June 30, was for a $180 minimum gross salary, effective October 1, 1947.

Net Salary: $98.35

"Take my case for an example," Nurse A told this reporter. "I get $110 a month. By living in the hospital, I save room rent. In addition I am provided with three meals a day. After reduction of income tax and Blue Cross, my net is $98.35. Here's what happens to it:

"A large part is spent buying the daily milk-shakes and sandwiches which I find necessary to supplement the hospital diet. I eat out at least once a day, spending at least 50 cents each time."

On a 7-day-a-week basis that $3.50 a week—or not less than $15 a month. That leaves Miss A $83.35 a month to buy uniforms, other clothes and to spend on amusements and personal items—cigarettes, candy, medicine, gifts, cards, newspapers and magazines. In a five week month it comes to $15.56 per week.

"I never send money home," she says. "I simply can't. And as for saving anything, that's impossible, unless you are so frugal or so temperate that you have no need for spending money. I spent three years studying nursing, and we're supposed to be rated as professional people. I wonder how many other professionals are paid like this?"

Impossible to Save

At that, the nurse added, her present salary is an improvement over the wages paid three months ago. A blanket raise went into effect at the end of May. Until that time, nurses on general duty were paid $80 a month, gross.

Nurse B lives at home. She is paid $135 per month. Income tax and Blue Cross deductions account for $15, leaving $120. Carfare costs $10, leaving $110. Rent: $15 a month. "My parents only accept $15 a month for room rent, thank goodness," says Miss B. "I know I couldn't get a room for that. Still I feel I would like to help more at home. I have $95 a month—or about $19 a week—to 'play around with.' I spend a good part of it on food, going outside to grab a sandwich and a coke, or some ice cream, to add to the hospital meal I get each day. No, I don't save anything. Do you think you could buy clothes at current prices, smoke some, go to the movies, buy an occasional (Continued on Page Three)

CHOOSING A CAREER

MODELING

By ELAINE BUEHLER, Karay Studios

Almost every girl, before settling down to her lifetime job of her own choosing, wonders how it would be to have a whirl at modeling. It is a sort of phase we all go through at one time or another.

Photographic modeling, in the last few years, has moved to a high spot among the glamour careers. It is exciting and lucrative work which does not entail long hard years of training as in other professions.

A model, more than any other career girl we know, is born and not made. If you have the makings of a model without the know-how, you may never make the grade.

That is where a charm school course makes its entrance. Many an unattractive girl with honest efforts on her part has been given an even chance in the field of modeling through the benefits of a charm course. You need not worry about your height, because there is just as much chance that you who are short will capture top modeling jobs. The most important element in any career is the ability to work hard to accomplish your objective.

It is one of the most interesting and glamorous careers and can also prove its worth as a stepping stone toward furthering any other talent you may have as in the field of musical or dramatic art.

Fashion Should Correct Nature Says Valentina

The first duty of fashion is to correct nature, not to defy it, according to Valentina, well known designer, in a radio talk replacing Walter Winchell Sunday night.

"Your only approach to a new fashion should be, 'Is it for me?' Next, you should honestly face your life, which means—where do you go? What surroundings do you live in? Your choice will be easier. Elegance is nothing more than wearing the right things at the right places."

This does not require a lot of clothes but a few wisely chosen for simple lines and unobtrusive color, Mme. Valentina said.

"A loud dress is easily remembered and makes you noticeable the first time you wear it. But in the end it is a boomerang, becoming annoying to you and to others," she concluded.

Some men are easy going when they should be tough, and tough when they should be easy going.

Nurses Indorse

magazine on that money, and have anything left to bank?"

Nurse C, discussing the wage problem, declared:

"One of the things we mind is that nurses on operating room duty, or maternity duty, are not paid any more than the general duty nurses. In other hospitals it is the custom to compensate nurses having these special jobs, which require extra alertness, and are much harder on you. Another thing, there isn't any night differential. Why, even in factories, they pay you more for working the 3 P. M. to 11 P. M. shift, or the 11 P. M. to 7 A. M."

Nurse D confirmed the other nurses' stories. She added, for the record, that nurses passing their State Board examinations received a ten-dollar raise. $120 for those living in; $145 for those living outside. However, she said:

"Just to add to our troubles, a notice was posted this week regarding medication. Up until now we had our prescriptions filled and bought our medicine in the hospital. Most drug store prescription counters give a professional discount to nurses, but it was simpler to get it right here. This week we were told that nurses must pay the full cost of the drugs—plus ten percent. In other words, it is now cheaper for us to fill prescriptions outside than in our own hospital."

Mink Coat Stolen At Merion Home

$3000 Wrap Was Only Thing Taken in Tuesday Theft

Mrs. Harry A. Kuljian, 1313 Raynham Rd., Merion, reported to Lower Merion detectives Tuesday night that her mink coat, valued at $3000, had been stolen.

Mrs. Kuljian and her husband, president of the Harry A. Kuljian Engineering Company, 1518 Walnut St., Philadelphia, were absent from their home at the time of the robbery. Returning home about 11 A. M., they told police they "felt something was wrong" about the outside of the house. They found a dining room window open and noted that a flower-pot had been carefully moved to avoid breakage.

Checking the house carefully, they found the intruder had touched nothing except in Mrs. Kuljian's bedroom. There the zipper bag in which she kept her coat was open and the wrap gone.

Mrs. Kuljian bought the coat in 1941. It bears inside the label "Saks Fifth Avenue," and her initials.

NARBERTH'S ANNIVERSARY SECTION

Boro Incorporated 52 Years Ago

Incorporation Of Narberth Took 19 Months

Court Finally Granted Petition for Borough 52 Years Ago

One year and seven months elapsed before a petition asking the incorporation of Narberth as a Borough was granted a little over 52 years ago.

The first petition, presented to the Montgomery County Court by members of the first Narberth Association, was refused because the presiding judge, Aaron S. Swartz, recognized four objections presented by townsmen and businessmen alike.

It was not until January 21, 1895, that Judge Swartz confirmed a petition which had been altered to meet the demands of the objectors. Boundary lines seemed to be the greatest bugaboo, and during the time that elapsed between the two petitions, Narberth lost valuable ground to the east and south, that portion which is now a part of Lower Merion Township's wealthy Merion section.

During the actual organization of the Borough of Narberth, the work which is now handled by the Borough Council was undertaken by the Narberth Association, a group dissolved in 1895.

Ownership of Narberth dates back to the beginning of Pennsylvania when William Penn was given

Many an older resident of Narberth will remember the old-fashioned automobiles such as this one stopped at the toll gate, Montgomery Ave. and Meeting House Lane. The automobile is the latest 1910 "horseless carriage," and the toll was seven cents.

en a tract of land, bounded on the east by the Delaware River starting at a point 12 miles east due north of New Castle.

Unable to use all of this land, Penn sold it to a group of Welsh men who came to this country August 14, 1682. However, it was not until 1887 that the land was sold to the Commonwealth Title Insurance Co., which made extensive plans for the development of the section.

Plans were laid for a model village, including streets called Haverford and Windsor running east and west, and Iona, Hampden, Grayling, Forrest, Essex, Dudley and Conway running north and south.

Before laying out the model village, the land south of the railroad was known as the town of Elm.

The exact date upon which Elm became a part of Narberth is not known, although it is thought to have happened in 1892.

Narberth is said to have been named by George Roberts, when he became president of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Being a lineal descendant of the original Welsh settlers, Roberts is said to have named the town from the Welsh term "na," meaning not, and "berth," meaning beautiful.

62 Boys, Girls
Sign for Camps

Parents Asked to Consult With Family Service
About Children

Sixty-two boys and girls have already been registered for Summer camps through the Family Service of the Main Line Federation of Churches, according to Robert M. Myers, executive secretary.

The Federation serves as a clearing house and source of information for any families in this region who are interested in arranging a summer camp experience for their sons or daughters. Fees for camps vary from about $12 a week to other camps which take children free. In some instances the Federation pays part of the cost of camp, although many of the families arranging camp through the Federation take care of the entire cost themselves. Funds used to help pay camp fees come from the Federation.

So many applications have been received by camps in the Philadelphia area this summer that many of the camps are limiting applications to a maximum of two weeks. However, most camps still are able to take a few boys and girls from ages of 7 up to 16 years.

Many of the summer camps are partially supported by Community "Christmas-all-the-Year-Round" donations given by friends of the Chest contributions.

The only equipment lack in a modern hospital? Somebody to meet you at the entrance with a handshake!—M. H. Fischer.

Drexel Hill Wrests Lead From Narberth as Locals Play at Norristown

By HARRY ELLSWORTH

Drexel Hill and Berwyn bounced into the lead in their respective divisions of the Main Line Baseball League as the races in both the Eastern and Western Sections tightened up.

Rained out of a Saturday contest with West Manayunk, Joey Irvin's Hillers sat by and watched Berwyn spank Narberth, 3-0, and thus move into first place, 17 percentage points ahead of the defending champs.

While Berwyn was stopping Narberth, last-place West Manayunk awoke and drubbed Wayne, 9-2, to permit Berwyn to take a half-game lead over the Italian-Americans in the Western Division.

Consequently, the stage was set for the meeting between the two sectional leaders at Berwyn on Saturday afternoon. Irvin will probably use his ace, left-hander, Jack Creany, winner of five games with-out a defeat, while Berwyn may send Ted Dawson to the mound.

Dawson hurled one of the gems of the current Main Line campaign on Saturday when he blanked Narberth with one hit—a single by Albie Becker in the fifth inning—before he was relieved by Jack Creany.

Following Saturday's meeting at Berwyn, Drexel Hill will play host to Collegeville, loser of 13 straight games, on the Hiller diamond, while Berwyn visits Gladwyne's rejuvinated outfit on Sunday. Buddy Charles, 14-1 winner over West Chester last week, will probably pitch for the home forces.

Narberth, meanwhile, will play at Norristown on Saturday and will play host to West Chester on Sunday. The County Seaters and West Chester are currently tied for third place in the Western Division, and the Davesmen hope to regain first place at their expense.

Manoa, only a half game off the pace in the Eastern Division following a Sunday win over Collegeville, is idle on Saturday, while Norristown on Veterans' Field in Manoa on Sunday. Nick DeFranco, Joe Papieves will hurt for the Matthews.

Wayne, which had a six-game winning streak severed on Saturday, will attempt to get back on the winning track on Saturday when it entertains Gladwyne. On Sunday, the Raiders are scheduled to invade Ardmore. The Lions, enjoying only a mediocre season thus far, jolted Norristown on Sunday. Lucine may pitch against Wayne's Harry Desert.

In other weekend league games, West Manayunk visits West Chester, and Ardmore plays at Collegeville on Saturday. The Yunkers, finally in possession of a winning pitcher in Sam Lowry, former Wilmington Blue Rock flinger, hope to break their last place deadlock with Gladwyne in the Eastern Division standings.

Saturday's heavy rains caused the permanent cancellation of all Main Line League games of that date.

Dom Caniglia, big left-handed pitcher who played for Narberth last year, is reported ready to chuck for Berwyn's contenders. Caniglia has been pitching up-state in the East Penn League this year.

The executive board of the Main Line League has ruled that Ken Keoch, placed on Narberth's list after release by Gladwyne, and Arnie DiGiovanna, on the Drexel Hill list after being dropped at his request by Ardmore, would be eligible to play for their new teams.

In a letter to all league managers, President Walter Hanley explained that "the board could not permit playoff contenders to be strengthened at the expense of the balance of the league."

Narberth released Czykreski and signed West Chester's West Chesterer dropped, Clark and added Wrightstone.

Two people were treated at Bryn Mawr Hospital Sunday after a car careened off the road in Radnor and smashed into a telephone pole on Lancaster Ave., a half mile east of Radnor Rd.

Driver of the car, C. Frank Murphy, 62, of Berwyn, treated at the hospital for multiple bruises on the legs, told Radnor police that he had fallen asleep at the wheel.

Miss Laura Gallagher, 47, who lives at the Montgomery Inn, Bryn Mawr, a passenger in Murphy's car, was treated at the hospital for a fractured left wrist, possible fracture of the left ankle and shock.

3 Teams Battle For Montdel Lead
While the three top teams in the Montdel League continue their rugged battle for the top spot, St. Philomena's moved up a notch in what the Lions say is a white-hot battle to gain a playoff spot. The Delco team knocked off fourth-place St. Thomas by a 3-1 score, at Villanova, Thursday night.

The league-leading Good Counsel team maintained its half-game margin over St. Margaret's, of Narberth, by jolting St. Charles, of Clifton Heights, 9-4, at the Poio Field, Tuesday night. St. Margaret's stayed right on the heels of the leaders by gaining a white-wash 6-0 decision at the expense of St. Colman's, at Ardmore, Wednesday night.

Lawrence, of Highland Park, remained two games back of the top slot with a 5-3 win over St. Charles, at Clifton Heights, Wednesday. On Friday, Good Counsel edged St. Lucy's, 3-2, at the Poio Field, in a game filled by darkness to round out the week's card. All three games scheduled for Monday had been rained out.

Ardmore 74 Ties Merion Nine, 5-5

In the season's surprise package Merion 29, with Pitcher Dick Fitzgerald in the box, was held to a 5-5 tie by Ardmore 74. Running true to form, Fitzgerald and Merion held a 2-0 lead at the end of the fifth inning.

However, in the sixth Ardmore scored five runs. In the home half of the sixth, Merion got two men on, whereupon Catcher Reggie McMillen hit a long home run to tie the score. The rains then rendered further play impossible.

Narberth 212 held a 7-5 lead over Penn Wynne 155 after four and one-half innings of play. But 155 rallied to push across five runs, the big blow being Barry Van Dyke's homer with two aboard.

Later, the score was tied at 10-all, Miller, of Narberth, helping along with the second home run of the game. Bee Cummings, of Penn Wynne 155, had "three for five" to lead the hitters, and all the hits were needed for 155 to pull ahead, 13-11, over Narberth.

Penn Wynne 33 maintained second place with a forfeit win over Ardmore 36. The latter lost two games during the week through its inability to field nine men at a game time to the second being a makeup game at Narberth.

This week's games: Narberth 212 at Penn Wynne 33, Penn Wynne 155 at Ardmore 74, Ardmore 36 at Merion 29.

Edelman Stars As Oakmonters Beat Llanerch
Johnny Edelman, pitching for Oakmont in the Haverford Township Playground League, pitched his second consecutive no-hit shut-out last Tuesday, this time against Llanerch as Oakmont won, 9-0.

Johnny struck out 16 and walked the only two Llanerch batters who got as far as first. It was Oakmont's third straight victory. Following Edelman's opening no-hitter against Manoa, Fred Schrader held the Polo Grounds to three hits and no runs, while Oakmont was scoring 14 runs.

Schrader pitched the fourth victory against Brookline, July 18. Brookline managed to score in the fifth inning after Oakmont had held its opponents scoreless for 25 innings. Oakmont won, 17 to Brookline, 3.

SEVERINGHAUS NAMED CHEST DRIVE CHAIRMAN
Leslie R. Severinghaus, headmaster of the Haverford School, was named chairman of private schools of the 1948 Community Chest Campaign according to an announcement made this week by Dr. A. Blair Knapp, dean of students at Temple University.

Dr. Knapp is acting as chairman of the private education division of the Public Service department of the campaign.

Tomboy to Play In Sandlot Tilt

Bella March, the Northeast's terrific tomboy, again will participate in the Sandlot Sports Association's annual All-Star Audition Games at Shibe Park on Monday, August 4.

The 12-year-old Crispin Grammar School lassie will serve as "bat boy" for the Northern Division team when it encounters the Southern Division nine in the Senior League All-Star game for the city championship. The game will be the fourth on the Shibe Park program, following Midget, Intermediate and Junior League All-Star contests.

In last year's Audition Game, Bella played second base for the Midget League All-Stars. She singled to right field in her only trip to the plate. Bella, daughter of Mrs. Margaret March, is one of twins. Her sister, Edith, is of the "little lady" type, according to Mrs. March, but two brothers—Kenneth, 19, and Ronald, 14—are baseball stars.

Surbeck, former Syracuse University ace, and J. B. (Red) Hutchison, ex-Penn State star, directed the Penn Wynne team this season. The league champs won nine of 10 games, losing only to Chatham Village-Penfield Downs' combined forces, 10-7. The duo still is seeking two 12 to 14-year-old teams to round out the league for next season, and Surbeck can be reached by calling Ardmore 3533-R.

Other league members, who will contribute the all-star players to oppose Penn Wynne, are Westgate Hills, Cynwyd, Ardmore Manor, Bywood and Chatham Village-Penfield Downs.

All of the Penn Wynne players are Bala-Cynwyd Junior High students except Bob Fixter, right-handed hurler who has won eight games and lost one. Fixter recently transferred to Episcopal Academy. The team lines up with Jack Shae
